

hip hoppers should have like two albums and just never be seen again. Fuck that shit, this shit means too much to a lot of people to just fuck it off. I know a lot of rappers fall off, and trends change and shit like that, but I think I'ma try to change that. I'm trying to bring back the comeback and shit. It's like rock and roll, they come back. But you never know, I could just be thinking I'm coming back and then, it's like niggers is like... damn.
